Reinventing the Law Library: Meeting the Challenge

LLNE/ABLL Fall 2014 Meeting, October 24, 2014

12:15-1:15 Lunch/LLNE Business Meeting, Dining Room

1:15-2:15 Experiencing the Challenge: Research Training Needs of Newer Attorneys, Estate Room

What are the key research skills all law students need to excel? Panelists will discuss the research training they wish law students received in school. Newer attorneys bring two different perspectives to this panel, one from big law and the other as a solo practitioner. Rounding out this panel is our librarian insider, who will give her impressions of the most vital research skills and database training.

Dylan Hayre

Founder, Lawyer for Soldiers

Susan Hesse

Director of Information Services, Wachtell, Lipton, Rosen & Katz

Marissa A. Lalli

Associate, WilmerHale

2:15-3:15 Confronting the Challenge: Doing More with Less, Estate Room

Learn how to make measured decisions when confronting budgetary constraints and the rising costs of legal materials. An expert on library efficiency will discuss what cuts can be made in library operations without hurting service to patrons.
